DDA shop allotment racket

131. SHRI GHULAM NABI AZAD: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether some officials of DDA have been accused of duping staff and widows of lakhs of rupees through a shop allotment racket as appeared in the print media; and

(b) if so, the details thereof and the action taken thereon?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION (SHRI PON RADHAKRISHNAN): (a) and (b) The news item which appeared in 'The Hindu' dated 13.5.2003 alleges use of fake documents by some officials of DDA thereby causing loss to the Authority and duping the widows of DDA staff of their allotted shops. The Vigilance Department of DDA has taken up enquiry into the matter based on a complaint received in November, 2002 alleging malpractice in the allotment of shops of staff widows of DDA and charging of differential rates from the allottees.
